XXX Sunday Ordinary Time

Paul, in his letter to the Thessalonians, proposes a new way of life. A different attitude where discernment, gratuitousness, and the consciousness of being free, constitute the foundation of the relationship with God and with neighbor.

The Gospel of Matthew points precisely in the same direction by showing us that, for Jesus, the foundation of the relationship with God and neighbor is solidarity and love. Jesus synthesizes the decalogue and almost the whole law in his principle of brotherly and reciprocal love.

Today we live in a society that has many more rules than the Jewish people in their day. Many times, our church has so many rules or laws that it prevents us from seeing Jesus' commandment.

We also live in a world that has many millions poorer, oppressed, and under international usury than the oppressed poor who cried out to the Old Testament prophets.

The Word of Jesus that we remember and update today in the Gospel is an invitation to shake our passivity, to regain ethical indignation at the intolerable situation of this modern and civilized world, and to return to the essentials of the Gospel, the desire to recover the values that the Gospel brings; that there is life, humanity, and happiness for all.

Neither politics, nor technology, nor often religion responds to this worldwide yearning, to this cry of the earth and to the many helpless people, who everyday become stronger and more demanding.

It is the voice of Pope Francis today, who calls us incessantly to return our lives to the love of God, to love and to the service of those most in need. We cannot separate God from ourselves, nor can we separate ourselves from God and the place where we live.

I invite you to live the call of Jesus: You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself.

He will be heading back to the Philippines to continue his priestly ministry in his own diocese, which is sad for us, but he will be returning to be with his own family, which is wonderful for him!

LET US PRAY FOR FR. CHRIS FOR SAFE TRAVELS AND IN HIS CONTINUED

In 2014 we owed the Oakland Diocese over $80,000 in past due assessment payments, while still being responsible for each subsequent year's assessment. On October 15th, with the help and the direction of our priests, Robert Calone, and our Finance Council, we are now debt free AND we are current on this year's assessment payments. Congratulations to us! And thank you for all of your help and support. This is reason to celebrate!

XXX Domingo Tiempo Ordinario

Pablo en su carta a los Tesalonicenses, propone un nuevo estilo de vida, una actitud diferente, donde el discernimiento, la gratuidad y la conciencia de ser libres, constituyen el fundamento de la relación con Dios y con el prójimo.

El evangelio de Mateo apunta, precisamente, en la misma dirección al mostrarnos que para Jesús, el fundamento de la relación con Dios y el prójimo es el amor solidario. Jesús sintetiza el decálogo y casi toda la ley, en su principio de amor fraternal y recíproco.

Nosotros vivimos hoy en sociedades que tienen muchas más normas que el pueblo judío en su época; incluso, muchas veces, nuestra iglesia tiene tantas normas o leyes que impiden ver el mandamiento de Jesús. Vivimos también en un mundo que tiene muchísimos millones más de pobres oprimidos bajo la usura internacional, que los pobres oprimidos por los que clamaron los profetas del Antiguo Testamento.

La Palabra de Jesús que hoy recordamos y actualizamos en el Evangelio, es una invitación a sacudir nuestra pasividad, a recuperar la indignación ética ante la situación intolerable de este mundo llamado moderno y civilizado, y a volver a lo esencial del Evangelio, al deseo de recuperar los valores que aporta el Evangelio: que haya vida, humanidad, felicidad para todos.

Ni la política, ni la tecnología, ni muchas veces la religión responde a este anhelo mundial, a este grito de la tierra y de muchos desamparados, que cada día se hacen más fuerte e insistente.

Es la voz del Papa Francisco hoy, que nos llama incesantemente a volver nuestra vida al amor de Dios, al amor y al servicio de los más necesitados. No podemos separar a Dios de nosotros ni podemos nosotros separarnos de Dios y del lugar en donde vivimos.

Les invito a que vivamos el llamado de Jesús: Amarás al Señor, tu Dios, con todo tu corazón, con toda tu alma y con toda tu mente. Éste es el más grande y el primero de los mandamientos. Y el segundo es semejante a éste: Amarás a tu prójimo como a ti mismo.

Diácono Gustavo

ANNOUNCING THE OPENING OF THE 2021 MASS BOOK!

We will be opening the 2021 Mass Book this Thursday, October 1st. Due to the pandemic, we will take mass intention requests this year via email or in written form beginning Thursday and prioritize them in the order we receive them. No phone calls please so that we can maintain a written, prioritized list as the requests come in. We ask that you make sure your email address or telephone number are included in your request so that we may contact you if there are conflicts with the date requests.

Donation request remains $10 per mass intention. In accordance with Diocesan policy, only the Saturday morning 8 am mass may be double-booked for intentions. Initially we are limiting the number of requests per family to 12 maximum so that everyone has a fair opportunity for one mass intention per month.

Mass intentions are available for Monday through Friday masses at 7:30 am, Saturday morning masses at 8 am, our weekend schedule of Saturday at 5:30 pm, Sunday at 8 am, 10 am , 12 noon and 3 pm in Spanish.

We also have mass intentions available on the 1st Friday of the month at 7 pm, the 2nd Tuesday of the month at 10 am at Diamond Ridge, 3rd Wednesday of the month at 10 am at Stoneman Village and the 3rd Friday of each month at 7 pm in Spanish if you'd like to request any of those.

Please feel free to use the form provided. You can email this form, mail this form, put it in any collection basket or place it in the mail slot in the parish office door.

Prayer for a Pandemic

May we who are merely inconvenienced remember those whose lives are at stake.

May we who have no risk factors remember those most vulnerable.

May we who have the luxury of working from home remember those who must choose between preserving their health or making their rent.

May we who have the flexibility to care for our children when their schools close remember those who have no options.

May we who have to cancel our trips remember those who have no safe place to go.

May we who are losing our margin money in the tumult of the economic market remember those who have no margin at all.

May we who settle in for a quarantine at home remember those who have no home.

As fear grips our country, let us choose love.

During this time when we cannot physically wrap our arms around each other, let us yet find ways to be the loving embrace of God to our neighbors.

Amen.
