The readings of this 22nd Sunday are about laws and rules. Moses told his people to keep God's laws for it is the statutes and the decrees that make the nation great. The Pharisees maximized God's laws by adding so many rules and strictly forced people to observe them. In observing what the Pharisees did in terms of the law, Jesus criticized them for their abuse of the law. Law is born to free people, not to enslave them. Then He said: "Hear me, all of you, and understand. Nothing that enters one from outside can defile that person; but the things that come out from within are what defile." (Mark 7:21) So what Jesus is saying is that the heart of the law lies within our own, natural hearts. In other words, it is the heart that matters.

The Pharisees kept all the religious rules. They prayed at the right time. They gave the exact amount required. The problem was their hearts weren't right. They were self-righteous, proud, and critical. Jesus said to them, "You're like a bunch of white-washed tombs. You look good on the outside, but on the inside, you are stinky." Nothing could be worse from within ourselves than taking cheap shots at everyone else while never bothering to look at ourselves. So many times we go around pointing fingers at others, but we forget three fingers are pointing back to us, saying "You need to change too."

The quality of our life is measured by the qualities of what we have in our hearts. So the most important thing that God needs from us is a pure heart. "Man looks at appearance, God sees the heart." (1Sam 16:7) All of us have areas that we struggle in, we make mistakes, and do things that we know we shouldn't. We tell ourselves we aren't going to give in to that temptation anymore, but we do it again. We lose our temper; we don't keep our word. It's easy to go around feeling guilty and condemned. Voices will whisper, "God's never going to bless you. You can't get it right. You don't deserve it."

But God is not looking for people who have a perfect performance, perfect behavior, people who never make a mistake. He's looking for people who have a perfect heart turned toward him. That means you may have sins, but you have a desire to please him. Deep down, you want to honor him with your life. God looks on the inside. He is more pleased with someone with a right heart that commits sins once in a while than someone with a wrong heart and performs perfectly all the time.

O God, take away our rocky hearts and replace them with good hearts so we may show love to the world, for we know it is truly the heart that matters. Amen!

Fr. Thi Hoang

Las lecturas de este vigesimo segundo Domingo son sobre leyes y reglas. Moisés le dijo a su pueblo que guardara las leyes de Dios porque son los estatutos y los decretos los que hacen grande a la nación. Los Fariseos maximizaron las leyes de Dios al agregar tantas reglas y obligar estrictamente a la gente a observarlas. Al observar lo que hicieron los Fariseos en términos de la ley, Jesús los criticó por su abuso de la ley. La ley nace para liberar a las personas, no para esclavizarlas. Luego dijo: "Oídme todos, y entended. Nada que entre a uno de afuera puede contaminar a esa persona; pero lo que sale de dentro es lo que contamina" (Marcos 7:21). Entonces, lo que Jesús dice es que el corazón de la ley está dentro de nuestro corazón, en otras palabras, es el corazón lo que importa.

Los Fariseos guardaron todas las reglas religiosas. Oraron en el momento adecuado. Dieron la cantidad exacta requerida. El problema era que su corazón no estaba bien. Eran moralistas, orgullosos y críticos. Jesús les dijo: "Ustedes son como un montón de tumbas encaladas. Se ven bien por fuera, pero por dentro, apestan". Nada podría ser peor desde nuestro interior que dispararle a todos los demás sin molestarnos nunca en mirarnos a nosotros mismos. Muchas veces vamos señalando a los demás con el dedo, pero nos olvidamos de que tres dedos nos señalan a nosotros, diciendo "tú también necesitas cambiar".

La calidad de nuestra vida se mide por las cualidades de lo que tenemos en nuestro corazón. Entonces, lo más importante que Dios necesita de nosotros es un corazón puro. "El hombre mira las apariencias, Dios ve el corazón" (1Sam 16: 7). Todos tenemos áreas en las que luchamos, cometemos errores y hacemos cosas que sabemos que no deberíamos. Nos dijimos a nosotros mismos que no íbamos a ceder más a esa tentación, pero lo hicimos de nuevo. Perdimos los estribos; no cumplimos nuestra palabra. Es fácil andar sintiéndose culpable y condenado. Las voces susurrarán: "Dios nunca te bendecirá. No puedes hacerlo bien. No te lo mereces".

Pero Dios no está buscando personas que tengan un desempeño perfecto, un comportamiento perfecto, personas que nunca se equivoquen. Está buscando personas que tengan un corazón perfecto vuelto hacia él. Eso significa que puede tener pecados, pero si desea complacerlo. En el fondo, quieres honrarlo con tu vida. Dios mira por dentro. Él está más complacido con alguien con un corazón recto que comete pecados de vez en cuando que alguien con un corazón equivocado y se desempeña perfectamente todo el tiempo.

Oh Dios, quita nuestros corazones duros y reemplázalos con corazones buenos para que podamos mostrar amor al mundo, porque sabemos que es verdaderamente el corazón lo que importa. ¡Amén!

Adoration - 8:30 AM to 6:45PM

Mass – 7:00 PM to 8:00 PM

Jesus said to His Apostles: "My soul is sorrowful to the point of death. Wait here and stay awake with me." And going on a little further he fell on his face and prayed. "My Father," he said, "If it is possible, let this cup pass me by. Nevertheless, let it be as you, not as I, would have it." He came back to the disciples and found them sleeping, and he said to Peter, "So you had not the strength to stay awake with me for one hour?"

We need at least one person per hour to sit with the Blessed Sacrament. The signup book is in the vestibule as you enter the church on the right-hand side.

If you have any questions please call Bill or Ann (432-3995).

BISHOP BARBER: NO RELIGIOUS EXEMPTION FOR COVID-19 VACCINE

The Catholic Church recommends people get vaccinated against COVID-19, and for good reason.

The Vatican has stated the connection with aborted fetal tissue is remote enough that it is morally permissible to take the vaccine. Therefore, since the Catholic Church has formally recommended its members receive the vaccine, a "religious exemption" would not apply to Catholics.

The Church also teaches people should not be forced to take the vaccine against their will. The Diocese of Oakland will not mandate obligatory vaccination for our employees and clergy. But we do mandate that our Catholic school employees unable or unwilling to be vaccinated get tested every week.

If a Catholic feels it is against their conscience to take the vaccine, that is a decision between them and God. True, the Church teaches people should follow their consciences. But a priest or bishop may not sign a "religious exemption" for a conscientious objection. They are two different things.

As faithful Catholics and responsible citizens, we have the moral and civil obligation to protect the well-being of our society. To get vaccinated is to protect ourselves, our neighbors and to help stop the spread of this deadly virus. Pope Francis received the vaccine. So did Pope Benedict. We recommend you get vaccinated too.

Vaccination is a simple way of promoting the common good and caring for each other, especially the most vulnerable.

Pope Francis

urges everyone to get vaccinated against COVID-19
