Dear Friends in Christ,

“Jesus, I trust in you,” is the message of this Divine Mercy Sunday. Jesus said to St. Faustina one day: “Humanity will never find peace until it turns with trust to Divine Mercy..” St. John Paul II realized how true this saying was when he saw the culture of death all over world. And in the year 2000, when he canonized Sister Faustina, he declared the Second Sunday of Easter to be Divine Mercy Sunday. Why the second Sunday of Easter? It is because on this Sunday we hear the story of Thomas who doubted the resurrection. To confirm Thomas’ faith, Jesus showed him the wounds caused by the sin of humanity. By showing Thomas the wounds, Jesus shows his mercy to the world and gives us a good model to respond to hatred and violence. What do you do when someone has hurt you? Will you hate them back? Will you take a revenge? – an eye for an eye? Pay back! What did Jesus do when people hurt him? He blessed them. He blesses us with his right hand on which we nailed him on the Cross. He transforms the law of justice into the law of mercy. That is the only way to live a life of peace.

So the core of the Divine Mercy message is very simple as such: God says to us: “I am love and mercy. Come to me, I will heal your wounds. I am not going to punish you, but I want to heal your wounded hearts. Let me do it for you. And trust me.” Throughout his life, Jesus responded with mercy to people in all walks of life. He consoled a widow whose only son just passed away to say, “Don’t cry!” He befriended the rich and the poor, tax collectors, prostitutes, lepers, and the Gentiles. He raised the dead to life. He healed the sick, gave sight to the blind, and fed the hungry. He grieved when his friend died, and forgave the people who crucified him. He said: “Blessed are the merciful, for you will be shown mercy.”

Yes, we all need mercy. What is mercy? Mercy comes from a Latin word Misericordia: misere-re (“pity” or “misery”) and cordia (“heart”). So Mercy means the suffering of the heart, a type of compassion, a deep, loving identification with people in their suffering. Having mercy means that we enter into the other person’s suffering. We feel the other person’s pain, and place ourselves inside the other person’s heart and mind. When that happens, we are moved to respond in a merciful way.

Life is full of challenges and trials. We find these struggles demonstrate our inability to live our lives as we desire. This pandemic reminds us that we are powerless; we are vulnerable. That’s why we cry out today, “Jesus I trust in You.” He will bring our stormy days to pass and peace will come again. So, let us bring our struggles to Jesus. He knows the struggles and pains of this world; He knows what it is to suffer. But now, with Christ’s resurrection, suffering has a redemptive value. Now, the sufferings we endure, large or small, can be united to Jesus’ suffering on the Cross, the act that saved the world. And so, whether we are worrying about our appearance, our health, or our livelihood, we can enter into the struggle knowing that Christ is with us and will help us walk this path, because there can be good that comes out of these days. So we pray: “For the sake of his sorrowful passion. Have mercy on us and on the whole world.”

Fr. Thi Hoang

Queridos Amigos en Cristo,

"Jesús, en ti Confío". es el mensaje de este Domingo de la Divina Misericordia. Jesús le dijo un día a Santa Faustina: "La humanidad nunca encontrará la paz hasta que se vuelva con confianza a la Divina Misericordia". San Juan Pablo II se dio cuenta de cuán cierto era esta frase cuando vió la cultura de la muerte en todo el mundo. Y en el año 2000 cuando canonizó a la hermana Faustina, hizo del Segundo Domingo de Pascua el Domingo de la Divina Misericordia. ¿Por qué el segundo Domingo de Pascua? Es porque en este Domingo escuchamos la historia de Tomás que dudó de la resurrección. Para confirmar la fe de Tomás, Jesús le mostró las heridas causadas por el pecado de la humanidad. Al mostrarle a Tomás las heridas, Jesús muestra su misericordia al mundo y nos da un buen modelo para responder al odio y la violencia. ¿Qué haces cuando alguien te ha lastimado? ¿Los odiarás de vuelta? ¿Te Vengarás? - ¿Ojo por Ojo? ¡Pagar! ¿Qué hizo Jesús cuando la gente lo lastimó? Los bendijo. Nos bendice con su mano derecha en la que lo clavamos en la Cruz. Transforma la ley de la justicia en la ley de la misericordia. Esa es la única forma de vivir una vida en paz.

Entonces, el núcleo del mensaje de la Divina Misericordia es muy simple como tal: Dios nos dice: Yo soy amor y misericordia. Ven a mí, curaré tus heridas. No los voy a castigar, pero quiero curar sus corazones heridos. Déjame hacerlo por ti. Y créeme. A lo largo de su vida, Jesús respondió con misericordia a las personas en todos los ámbitos de la vida. Consoló a una viuda cuyo único hijo acababa de fallecer para decirle: ¡no llores! Se hizo amigo de ricos y pobres, recaudadores de impuestos, prostitutas, leprosos y gentiles. Resucitó a los muertos. Sanó a los enfermos, dio vista a los ciegos y alimentó a los hambrientos. Se entristeció cuando murió su amigo y perdonó a las personas que lo crucificaron. Dijo: Bienaventurados los misericordiosos, porque se te mostrará misericordia.

Sí, todos necesitamos misericordia. ¿Qué es la misericordia? La misericordia proviene de la palabra en Latin: Misericordia miserere ("piedad" o "miseria") y cordia ("corazón"). Entonces, Misericordia significa el sufrimiento del corazón, un tipo de compasión, una identificación profunda y amorosa con las personas en su sufrimiento. Tener misericordia significa que entramos en el sufrimiento de la otra persona. Sentimos el dolor de la otra persona y nos colocamos dentro del corazón y la mente de la otra persona. Cuando eso sucede, nos sentimos impulsados a responder de manera misericordiosa.

La vida está llena de desafíos y pruebas. Encontramos estas luchas porque demuestran nuestra incapacidad para vivir nuestras vidas como deseamos. Esta pandemia nos recuerda que somos impotentes; somos vulnerables. Por eso clamamos hoy, Jesús, en Ti Confío. Él hará que pasen nuestros días de tormenta y la paz volverá. Entonces, llevemos nuestras luchas a Jesús. Conoce las luchas y los dolores de este mundo; Sabe lo que es sufrir. Pero ahora, con la resurrección de Cristo, el sufrimiento tiene un valor redentor. Ahora, los sufrimientos que sufrimos, grandes o pequeños, se pueden unir al sufrimiento de Jesús en la Cruz, el acto que salvó al mundo. Y así, ya sea que estemos preocupados por nuestra apariencia, nuestra salud o nuestro sustento, podemos entrar en la lucha, sabiendo que Cristo está con nosotros, nos ayudará a transitar este camino, porque puede haber bien que salga de estos días. . Por eso oramos: Por tu dolorosa pasión. Ten piedad de nosotros y del mundo entero.

NEXT SUNDAY'S 2ND COLLECTION

Maintenance Fund

Dearest Flock of the Good Shepherd,
I pray that the Lord may shower his grace and protection to all of you and your families. God is creating us every day to make us alive. He founded his Church and entrusted her to our care. We are grateful that we have a church with beautiful premises. We are committed to keep the church vibrant, nice and neat. So we are going to build two statues in front of the church: The Good Shepherd and Our Mother Mary (see the picture). They are 10 feet height and are made of marble. The total cost for this project is estimated about $50,000. I appeal to your kindness and generosity in this effort to achieve our goal. If you or your ministries donate $500 for each statue or more, your names will be engraved on the donation plaques. Thank you so very much for your loving support for such an important project.

God is Good! All the time! Fr. Thi Hoang

We want to thank the following people for their generous donation of $500. or more towards the Good Shepherd and Mother Mary Statues. So far we have received $22,456.49

It's been brought to my attention that when ministers are serving at a mass, they leave their personnel items in the pew to save their seat. Only to find that when they return their items have been moved and someone else is seating in the spot they reserved. Please do not remove their personnel items nor take the seat they've reserved.

If you have any questions call Bill Abitz Ministry Coordinator 925 432-3995.

From the Chapel

It's been brought to our attention that some individuals using the Chapel are letting individuals in when they knock. Do not let anyone enter unless they have the code for the chapel, this is for security reasons. If you have any questions, please contact Bill Abitz 925 872-5852

Second Collection Repurposed!
The second collection scheduled for April 24 will be for the Ukrainian refugees, instead of the Bishop's Ministries Appeal
