My dear Friends in Christ,

Two disciples left for Emmaus while the rest of their grieving brothers and sisters were gathering in Jerusalem, mourning for Jesus' death. The two were so frustrated and depressed with what happened to Jesus. They couldn't accept the shameful defeat of their master whom they expected to overturn the Romans and set them free. This is one of my favorite Gospel stories. And I could preach on this for hours. You may be thinking: No way please! I like this story because I can relate to it easily. The story of the Road to Emmaus is our story, story of despair and disappointment, story conversion and hope. Truly, we are the disciples on the road to Emmaus. There's so much to appreciate in this well-loved encounter: There many spiritual lessons we can draw from this little story.

First of all, we notice two disciples walking on the road, sad. They were sad because they were walking the wrong way. Jerusalem is supposed to be a place of promise and salvation, but they were turning away from it. And while they were frustrated, they met a stranger who became their life changing. Who was it? It was the risen Christ. This reminds us that we should not be afraid of strangers, Jesus now can appear and walk with us in all types of bodies: male and female, black and white, young and old, rich and poor, native and immigrant, Catholic and Protestant, Muslim, liberal and conservative, so on and so forth. We should welcome them with open arms, for many times Jesus comes to us as a stranger.

Second lesson: God always reaches out to us first. Jesus found the two disciples on the road. He sought them out so they could meet him face to face, heart to heart and be transformed. We should remember that on our journey of life, Jesus is continually seeking us out and desiring to find us. But we may all ask this question: Why didn't the disciples recognize Jesus? Because things did not happen as they had expected. They had a wrong perception of the resurrection. They thought that Jesus would redeem the Israel by a powerful and glorious way, not by a shameful death on the cross. We can learn that God's ways are not our ways. What we consider to be failure might not be so in the eyes of God. It might just be a necessary step to something truly greater. The cross, for some people, is a sign of failure, but for those who believe, it is truly a sign of victory.

Third lesson, after Jesus broken the bread, their eyes were open. Then and only then they turned to each other and said: Did not our hearts burn within us as he talked to us on the road and explain the scripture to us? Notice that it's in looking back on the experience that they realized just how impactful it has been. It's in looking back and shifting and sorting through the events and the feelings of our day that we enhance our understanding, that we deepen our appreciation, we embrace gift of love. Through daily examination of life, we grow in our appreciation of how much God loves us and how powerful his grace is at work in our lives.

Every Sunday, when we come together to celebrate Mass, we reenact the Road to Emmaus Story. In saying: I Confess, we acknowledge all the darkness and sinfulness and lack of faith that we walk in. Then we listen to the word of God in Scripture and let the Spirit of Jesus speak to our hearts. And then we meet Jesus in the Eucharist. The key question then is: what do I do after encountering the Risen Christ? Will I be like the two disciples who made a U-turn to Jerusalem, on fire spreading the Good News. Do I bring this experience of Jesus with me at home, at work and in society? Do I feel my heart burning when I listen to the scripture? Am I taking Jesus' place as the stranger on the road, walking with others in need? Do i welcome strangers with open arms as i welcome Jesus? If i do all this, i am the true disciple of Christ, i am an Easter person. Alluia is my song. Amen!

Mis queridos amigos en Cristo,

Dos discípulos se fueron a Emaús mientras el resto de sus afligidos hermanos y hermanas se reunían en Jerusalén, de luto por la muerte de Jesús. Los dos estaban tan frustrados y deprimidos por lo que le sucedió a Jesús. No podían aceptar la vergonzosa derrota de su amo, de quien esperaban que derrocará a los romanos y los liberara. Esta es una de mis historias favoritas del Evangelio. Y podría predicar sobre esto durante horas. Usted puede estar pensando: ¡De ninguna manera, por favor! Me gusta esta historia porque puedo relacionarme con ella fácilmente. La historia del Camino de Emaús es nuestra historia, historia de desesperación y decepción, historia de conversión y esperanza. Verdaderamente, somos los discípulos en el camino a Emaús. Hay tanto que apreciar en este amado encuentro: Hay muchas lecciones espirituales que podemos sacar de esta pequeña historia.

En primer lugar, notamos a dos discípulos caminando por el camino, tristes. Estaban tristes porque iban por el camino equivocado. Se suponía que Jerusalén era un lugar de promesa y salvación, pero se estaban alejando de él. Y mientras estaban frustrados, conocieron a un extraño que cambió su vida. ¿Quién fue? Era el Cristo resucitado. Esto nos recuerda que no debemos temer a los extraños, Jesús ahora puede aparecer y caminar con nosotros en todo tipo de cuerpos: hombres y mujeres, negros y blancos, jóvenes y viejos, ricos y pobres, nativos e inmigrantes, católicos y protestantes, Musulmanes, liberales y conservadores, etc., etc. Debemos recibirlos con los brazos abiertos, porque muchas veces Jesús viene a nosotros como un extraño.

Segunda lección: Dios siempre se acerca a nosotros primero. Jesús encontró a los dos discípulos en el camino. Los buscó para que pudieran encontrarse con él cara a cara, corazón a corazón y ser transformados. Debemos recordar que en nuestro camino de la vida, Jesús está continuamente buscándonos y deseando encontrarnos. Pero todos podemos hacernos esta pregunta: ¿Por qué los discípulos no reconocieron a Jesús? Porque las cosas no sucedieron como ellos esperaban. Tenían una percepción equivocada de la resurrección. Ellos pensaron que Jesús redimiría a Israel por un camino poderoso y glorioso, no por una muerte vergonzosa en la cruz. Podemos aprender que los caminos de Dios no son nuestros caminos. Lo que consideramos un fracaso podría no serlo a los ojos de Dios. Podría ser solo un paso necesario para algo verdaderamente mayor. La cruz, para algunas personas, es una señal de fracaso, pero para aquellos que creen, es verdaderamente una señal de victoria.

Tercera lección, después de que Jesús partió el pan, sus ojos estaban abiertos. Entonces, y solo entonces, se miraron el uno al otro y dijeron: ¿No ardía nuestro corazón dentro de nosotros mientras nos hablaba en el camino y nos explicaba la escritura? Tenga en cuenta que es al mirar hacia atrás en la experiencia que se dieron cuenta de lo impactante que ha sido. Es al mirar hacia atrás y cambiar y clasificar los eventos y los sentimientos de nuestro día que mejoramos nuestra comprensión, que profundizamos nuestro aprecio, que abrazamos el regalo del amor. A través del examen diario de la vida, crecemos en nuestra apreciación de cuánto nos ama Dios y cuán poderosa es su gracia obrando en nuestras vidas.

Todos los domingos, cuando nos reunimos para celebrar la Misa, recreamos la Historia del Camino a Emaús. Al decir: Confieso, reconocemos toda la oscuridad, el pecado y la falta de fe en la que caminamos. Luego escuchamos la palabra de Dios en las Escrituras y dejamos que el Espíritu de Jesús hable a nuestros Corazones. Y luego nos encontramos con Jesús en la Eucaristía. La pregunta clave entonces es: ¿qué hago después de encontrarme con Cristo Resucitado? ¿Seré como los dos discípulos que se alejaron de Jerusalén, ardiendo en la difusión de las Buenas Nuevas? ¿Llevo esta experiencia de Jesús conmigo en casa, en el trabajo y en la sociedad? ¿Siento que mi corazón arde cuando escucho las escrituras? ¿Estoy tomando el lugar de Jesús como el extraño en el camino, caminando con otros necesitados? ¿Recibo a los extraños con los brazos abiertos como acojo a Jesús? Si hago todo esto, soy el verdadero discípulo de Cristo, soy una persona de Pascua. Alluia es mi canción. ¡Amén!
