Good Shepherd Sunday

Jesus said: "I am the good shepherd. My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me."

To fully understand this, we need to know the sheep farming at the time of Jesus. At night, the shepherds gather all the sheep together in one common sheepfold. In the morning, the shepherd would separate the sheep this way: They walked out and called the sheep who were trained to hear to their shepherd's voice. Then sheep followed their shepherd. But some bad shepherds would get up early, calling their own sheep and try to trick other shepherd's sheep to come with them by mimicking the voice of the good shepherds. This is the tricky part. If the sheep got tricked and went with the wrong shepherds, they got caught and slaughtered that day.

We live in a society where there are voices of all kinds affecting us. Some voices try to mimic the voice of the good shepherd. They are voices of personal pleasure, self-interest, greed and sin. They all say follow me. I will bring you life. They are not the voice of the good shepherd. So today we are challenged to recognize the voice of our Lord among the midst of many voices. God's voice can be recognized in both opposite experiences of our life. It can be found in moment of great joy, and in time of sadness. St. Ignatius of Loyola once said: when we are in sin, when we need to be awakened up, God's voice is like a thunder in our conscience, reminding us to repent. When we are in grace, God's voice is soft like in drop of water on the sponge. So the voice of God can be recognized in birth, health, and joy, as well as in death, illness, and sadness. It is found in Good Friday and also in Easter Sunday.

But the problem is we are not trained to hear God's voice in both of them. When a family gathers together for a BBQ, full of joy and love. God's voice is there. When this family has a funeral, God's voice is there as well. Christ comforts the afflicted and afflicts the comforted. The voice that is most scary to us might bring us comfort. For instance, the voice that calls us to go to confession. We may feel scared and nervous at first but the aftertaste is sweet and peaceful. So the Gospel today challenges us to find God's voice and his blessings in all circumstances of our lives: in good times and in bad, in sickness and in health so that we may put our trust in his providential care because he says:

"My sheep hear my voice.
I know them, and they follow me.
I give them eternal life,
No one can take them out of my hand.

May our Good Shepherd Lord care and protect us all as we celebrate our Feast Day today so we may all live together as one flock, one Family, living and sharing the love of Christ.

Happy Our Feast Day!

Domingo del Buen Pastor

Jesús dijo: “Yo soy el buen pastor. Mis ovejas oyen mi voz; Yo las conozco y ellas me siguen.” Para entender esto completamente, necesitamos conocer la cría de las ovejas para la industria de la lana en la época de Jesús. Por la noche, los pastores reunían a todas las ovejas en un redil común. Por la mañana, el pastor separaba las ovejas de esta manera: salían y llamaban a las ovejas que estaban entrenadas para escuchar la voz de su pastor. Entonces las ovejas seguían a su pastor. Pero algunos malos pastores se levantaban temprano, llamaban a sus propias ovejas y trataban de engañar a las ovejas de otros pastores para que fueran con ellos imitando la voz de los buenos pastores. Esta es una parte complicada. Si las ovejas fueron engañadas y se fueron con los pastores equivocados, fueron atrapadas y más probable sacrificadas en ese día.

Vivimos en una sociedad donde hay voces de todo tipo que nos afectan. Algunas voces intentan imitar la voz del buen pastor. Son voces de placer personal, interés propio, codicia y pecado. Todos dicen sígueme. Yo te traeré la vida. No son la voz del buen pastor. Así que hoy tenemos el desafío de reconocer la voz de nuestro Señor entre la confusión de muchas voces. La voz de Dios se puede reconocer en ambas experiencias opuestas de nuestra vida. Se puede encontrar en momentos de gran alegría y en momentos de tristeza. San Ignacio de Loyola dijo una vez: cuando estamos en pecado, cuando necesitamos que nos despierten, la voz de Dios es como un trueno en nuestra conciencia, recordándonos que nos arrepintamos. Cuando estamos en gracia, la voz de Dios es suave como una gota de agua sobre una esponja. Así la voz de Dios puede ser reconocida en el nacimiento, la salud y la alegría, así como en la muerte, la enfermedad y la tristeza. Se encuentra en el Viernes Santo y también en el Domingo de Resurrección.

Pero el problema es que no estamos capacitados para escuchar la voz de Dios en ambos. Cuando una familia se reúne para una parrillada, llena de alegría y amor. La voz de Dios está ahí. Cuando esta familia tiene un funeral, la voz de Dios también está allí. Cristo consuela a los afligidos y aflige a los consolados. La voz que nos da más miedo puede traernos consuelo. Por ejemplo, la voz que nos llama a confesarnos. Puede que nos sintamos asustados y nerviosos al principio, pero el regusto es dulce y tranquilo. Por eso el Evangelio de hoy nos desafía a encontrar la voz de Dios y sus bendiciones en todas las circunstancias de nuestra vida: en las buenas y en las malas, en la enfermedad y en la salud para que podamos poner nuestra confianza en su cuidado providencial porque dice:

“Mis ovejas oyen mi voz.
Yo las conozco y ellas me siguen.
Yo les doy vida eterna,
Nadie puede quitármelas de la mano.

Que nuestro Señor El Buen Pastor nos cuide y proteja a todos mientras celebramos nuestra Fiesta hoy para que todos podamos vivir juntos como un solo Rebaño, una sola Familia, viviendo y compartiendo el amor de Cristo.

Feliz día de nuestra fiesta

Multilingual Rosary Prayer & Procession

Traditionally, the Church dedicates the Month of May to honor the Blessed Lady, and to commemorate her first apparition in Fatima, May 13th, 1917. In response to such a beautiful tradition, our family of the Good Shepherd will have a multilingual Rosary Prayer procession and Mass to honor our Blessed Mother and to pray for respect life and peace in the world.

The Rosary procession will be held on Saturday, May 13th at 6:30pm (right after 5:30pm Mass). Come and join us for this special holy event. This is a good opportunity to come together as a Good Shepherd family to pray for one another and for the world.

Blessings, Fr. Thi Hoang
