

Church of the Good Shepherd

January 26, 2014

3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

We, the members of Good Shepherd Catholic Church, are a sacramental community of faith, guided by the Holy Spirit, inspired by the Word, and centered in the Eucharist.

We are diverse in culture and talent, but one in purpose – to make known the presence of God’s saving love as revealed to us by Jesus Christ.

In partnership with other Christians in our deanery and diocese, and with the larger community, we share responsibility to foster spiritual growth and conversion, and to reach out to all people in their spiritual and temporal needs.

Fr. Carl's Corner

This Sunday's thoughts are my reflection of my experience here in my hometown that was devastated by typhoon Haiyan last November, 2013. Our parish priest is so happy to receive our cash donations. We have sent 33 boxes of used clothing and other goods and all of these will be distributed to poor families. They need more help and hopefully, we as a parish, could respond to their misery and call for help. In the midst of the devastation, I am so inspired to know that there were many stories of miracles of how prayer and faith have saved them from the super typhoon.

For almost a week, I was busy listening to many stories of survival and also stories of generosity from people around the world. The presence of United Nations Relief Effort and Program was a big help for the victims and their recovery. The generous help from Christian and Catholic Organizations were also very prominent. After 2 months of rebuilding their lives, livelihood and houses, the focus is now on giving sustainable livelihood for poor families. Our parish priest is now rebuilding the Catholic school that was flattened down and totally destroyed by the typhoon. Through the help of religious communities and other Non Government Organizations, more assistance is coming.

What really hit me most and touched me was the resiliency of the Filipino People and their strong faith. At the end of the day, praising God is still the last words that come out from the lips of people. "I thank God that we are safe." "I praise God for keeping us alive." According to the parishioners, our town church is always full every Sunday. More people come to Mass. Faith was tested. They endured the greatest trial in their lives facing a 12 foot sea surge and strong winds but their strong trust that God would not abandon them remained.

I have learned more listening to the stories of many people here in my hometown. A local TV Reporter talked with a little girl days after the typhoon hit our town. She was asked, "What did you do when the typhoon arrived?" She said, "My mother and I were praying the Rosary." This really opened my eyes and heart to the spiritual reality that the best response to all the problems and trials we face is none other than prayer when our human ability is exhausted, when our human power has reach its limit and maximum. In the end, God becomes the source of strength. I hope and pray that the trials and suffering that my town-mates are facing right now will increase their faith and trust in God.

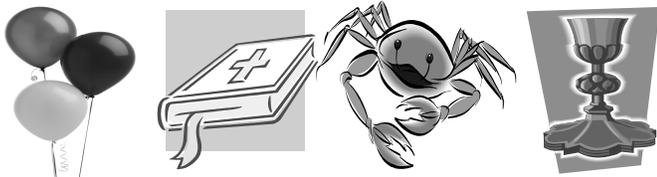

I will upload the pictures I took in our Parish Facebook and also in our website.

Please pray for the typhoon victims in the Philippines and again thank you so much for your help and generosity!

Father Carl

EFT & PLEDGE FORM FOLLOW UP FROM LAST WEEKEND

Our thanks to David DeLuna for his motivating talk about electronic giving and the establishment of a parish emergency fund. We are not requesting an increase in giving at this time, just a change from giving through cash and checks in envelopes to electronic giving to assist you in being able to plan your giving to the parish and to help the parish in being able to rely on consistent giving. The emergency fund is being established so that if we have issues such as a broken water line or a needed roof repair, that there are funds set aside for that and we do not have to come to you for every financial emergency we have. See the double-sided form stuffed in today's bulletin to assist you in participating in these two important matters.
