WELCOME FR. THI HOANG!

Warm greetings to all of you, my dearest staff and parishioners,
May the love and peace of our Lord be with all of you and with your families.

I am excited and looking forward to journeying with you as your administrator at the Good Shepherd community. Together we live out our mission of being one flock, one family, living and sharing the loving of Christ.

To begin with, I would like to express my deep gratitude to Fr. Carl Arcosa for his great leadership skills in the past few years in revitalizing our parish and making it vibrant and welcoming. We pray for him and wish him well as he begins his new mission at St. Michael's.

After I received the call from our Bishop Barber about my assignment to the Good Shepherd, I was excited. I was worried. I had mixed emotions. Then I felt in silence. I prayed. I recollected. I looked back, trying to connect the dots. Then I was struck in a deep cord with the name of the parish, The Good Shepherd. I said to myself: What a Divine Providence!

When I was a child, I was a water buffalo boy. I took care of my family buffalo as the shepherd to his sheep. I started the job when I was seven years old. My daily task was to take the buffalo to the field for him to eat grass. I went to school half day and the rest of time I tended my buffalo. I had to feed him well enough so that he could plough the field to his best.

This was not an easy job for a seven year-old boy. Once the farming season came, I had to get up at two or three o'clock in the morning to feed the buffalo so that he could plough the field the next day. Sometimes, I had to take care of his wounds caused by his fighting with other male buffalos. I had to go searching for him when he was lost. I called him. He recognized my voice and I found him. I did all of those things as a love of a child for his pet. I did it for almost ten years.

So my assignment to the Good Shepherd reminds me of my childhood. Truly, to me, there is no better loved picture of Jesus than that of the Good Shepherd who carries his sheep on his shoulders and sacrifices his life to protect them. It was the image of the Good Shepherd that inspired me to the priesthood. And my motto of being a priest is to model our Lord to be a good, humble and joyful shepherd to people I serve.

I believe you all know the parable of the Good Shepherd. When you read this parable, which image do you identify yourself with? The Good shepherd or the sheep? The correct answer is both. As shepherds, we take Christ, the Good Shepherd, as a model for our life, obeying the Father, feeding others as Christ did to his sheep. As shepherds, you are to feed, protect and keep your family together as faithful flock. As sheep, we are to hear the voice of the Shepherd, following his instructions. His voice may not be as attractive as other false ones. It may be sour at first, but the after taste is always sweet. Let's conform our will into his and follow him, for He has the word of eternal life as He said in this 18th Sunday's Gospel: "I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me will never hunger, and whoever believes in me will never thirst" (John 6:35).

In short, as parishioners of the Good Shepherd, we are all called to carry on the Lord's two-fold mission: As the shepherds, we are to protect and feed one another. As sheep, we are to listen to the teachings of the Mother Church. I am excited and looking forward to journeying with you as your administrator of the Good Shepherd. Together we live out our mission of being one flock, one family, living and sharing the loving of Christ at church, at home, at work, and in society.

"The glory of God is the human person fully alive" (St. Irenaeus). So keep sharing your smiles and be happy!

Fr. Thi Hoang

"To fall in love with God is the greatest romance; to seek him the greatest adventure; to find him, the greatest human achievement." — St. Augustine of Hippo

Throughout the ages, people have sought meaning and purpose for their lives. We have an innate hunger for something greater than ourselves. Some of us without a clue to what drives us toward the "good," as Aristotle would say; some of us with a foundation of Christian upbringing that has kept a fire lit, seeking to continue that journey, to draw closer to the call that is truth, good, and pure love. This is precisely the reason why Jesus started the Catholic Church – to draw us closer to Him, Who is Truth, Good, and Love. Interested in learning more about the Catholic Church? Thinking of becoming a member of Good Shepherd, or perhaps curious about what Catholics believe? Maybe you wish to receive sacraments you missed earlier in life. You are invited to contact the parish office to learn more, or email david@delunatic.com. Sessions start August 14, so don't delay!

Saludos afectuosos a todos ustedes mi querido personal y feligreses, que el amor y la paz de nuestro Señor estén con todos ustedes y su familias. Estoy entusiasmado y ansioso de caminar con ustedes como su administrador en la comunidad del Buen Pastor. Juntos viviremos nuestra misión de ser un rebaño, una familia, viviendo y compartiendo el amor de Cristo.

Para empezar, me gustaría expresar mi profundo agradecimiento al Padre Carl Arcosa por sus inmensas habilidades de liderazgo en los últimos años para revitalizar nuestra parroquia y hacerla vibrante y acogedora. Oremos por él y le deseamos lo mejor al comenzar su nueva misión en San Miguel.

Después de recibir la llamada de nuestro obispo Barber sobre mi asignación al Buen Pastor, estaba entusiasmado. Estaba triste. Tenía emociones encontradas. Entonces medite en silencio. Recé. Me puse a recordar, mirando hacia atrás, tratando de conectar los puntos, el propósito. Entonces me di cuenta que todo tenía sentido con el nombre de la parroquia, el Buen Pastor. Me dije a mí mismo:

¡Es La Divina Providencia!

Cuando era niño, estaba encargado de cuidar del búfalo de nuestra familia y mi responsabilidad era darle agua. Me hice cargo de él como el pastor cuida de sus ovejas. Comencé el trabajo cuando tenía siete años de edad. Mi tarea diaria era llevar al búfalo al campo para que comiera pasto. Iba a la escuela hasta el medio día y el resto del tiempo atendía al búfalo. Tenía que alimentarlo lo suficientemente bien para que estuviese fuerte y que pudiera arar el campo lo mejor posible.

Esto no era trabajo fácil para un niño de siete años. Una vez que llegaba la temporada de cultivo, tenía que levantarme a las dos o tres de la mañana para alimentar al búfalo para que al día siguiente pudiese arar el campo. A veces, tenía que cuidar también de sus heridas causadas por peleas con otros búfalos machos. Tenía que ir a buscarlo cuando estaba perdido, cuando lo llamaba, él reconocía mi voz y lo encontraba más rápido. Yo hacía estas cosas con amor de niño por su mascota. Lo hice por casi diez años.

Así que mi asignación al Buen Pastor me recuerda esta etapa de mi niñez. Verdaderamente, para mí, no hay mejor imagen amada de Jesús que la del Buen Pastor que lleva sus ovejas sobre sus hombros y se sacrifica con gusto para protegerlas. Fue la imagen del Buen Pastor que me inspiró al sacerdocio. Y mi lema de ser sacerdote es modelar a nuestro Señor para poder ser un pastor bueno, humilde y alegre para con la gente a la que sirvo.

Creo que todos conocen la parábola del Buen Pastor. Cuando leen esta parábola, ¿con qué imagen se identifican? ¿el Buen Sefer o las ovejas? La respuesta correcta es ambas. Como pastores, tomamos a Cristo, el Buen Pastor, como modelo para nuestras vidas, obedeciendo al Padre, defendiendo a otros como Cristo hizo a sus ovejas. Como pastores, debemos alimentar, proteger y mantener a nuestra familia unida, como un rebaño fiel. Como ovejas, debemos escuchar la voz del Pastor, siguiendo sus instrucciones. Su voz puede no ser tan atractiva como otras voces falsas. Puede ser amargo al principio, pero el gusto después es siempre dulce. Confirmemos nuestra voluntad en la suya y sigámosle, porque él es el camino a la vida eterna como él dijo en este evangelio del Domingo pasado: "Yo soy el pan de la vida; quien venga a mí, nunca tendrá hambre, y quien crea en mí, nunca va a tener sed. (Juan 6:35).

En Resumen, como feligreses del Buen Pastor, todos estamos llamados a continuar la misión del Señor: como el Pastor, debemos protegernos y alimentarnos unos a otros. Como ovejas, debemos escuchar las enseñanzas de la Madres Iglesia. Estoy entusiasmado y ansioso de caminar con ustedes como su administrador del Buen Pastor. Juntos viviremos nuestra misión de ser un rebaño, una familia, viviendo y compartiendo el amor de Cristo en la Iglesia, en el Hogar, en el Trabajo y en la Sociedad.

"la gloria de Dios es la persona humana plenamente viva" (Santo Ireneo.)

¡Así que sigan compartiendo sus sonrisas y sean felices!
