If you are feeling ill today, please refrain from partaking of the Blood of Christ from the communal chalice. We also ask that those who are not well refrain from offering your hand to others at the sign of peace.

No one who fears infection should feel obligated to share the sign of peace or receive the Most Precious Blood from the communal chalice. Sacred Communion is fully received by participating in one or both species.

We pray for the health and recovery of all who are ill or not with us today.

The Objectives:

For our parish to be a center of evangelization (Joy of the Gospel #28)

“The parish is the presence of the Church in a given territory, an environment for hearing God’s word, for growth in the Christian life, for dialogue, proclamation, charitable outreach, worship and celebration. In all its activities the parish encourages and trains its members to be evangelizers.”

“The parish is not an outdated institution; precisely because it possesses great flexibility, it can assume quite different contours depending on the openness and missionary creativity of the pastor and the community.”

“It is a community of communities, a sanctuary where the thirsty come to drink in the midst of their journey, and a center of constant missionary outreach.”

Functions and Roles:

1. Helps monitor daily operation of the parish and gives advise to the pastor to respond to the spiritual, temporal and pastoral needs of the parish.
2. Helps the pastor in planning out and making the annual parish calendar and parish pastoral plan.
3. Joins and participates in parish events
4. Organizes the annual parish festival, annual parish missions and monthly parish dinners and dinner with new parishioners with the pastor at the rectory.
5. Helps in recruiting volunteers for parish events and in the faith formation ministry groups.
6. Members serve as parish ambassadors.

Please pray for our new leaders and may God lead us to His plan and will for us as we fulfill out mission to be one family, one flock, one community living and sharing the mercy and love of God.

Fr. Carl

“The joy of the Gospel” Apostolic Exhortation of Pope Francis Fourth Sunday

The books of the Old Testament predicted that the joy of salvation would abound in messianic times. The prophet Isaiah exultantly salutes the awaited Messiah: “You have multiplied the nation, you have increased its joy” (9:3). He exhorts those who dwell on Zion to go forth to meet him with song: “Shout aloud and sing for joy!” (12:6). The prophet tells those who have already seen him from afar to bring the message to others: “Get you up to a high mountain, O herald of good tidings to Zion; lift up your voice with strength, O herald of good tidings to Jerusalem” (40:9). All creation shares in the joy of salvation: “Sing for joy, O heavens, and exult, O earth! Break forth, O mountains, into singing! For the Lord has comforted his people, and will have compassion on his suffering ones” (49:13). Zechariah, looking to the day of the Lord, invites the people to acclaim the king who comes “humble and riding on a donkey”: “Rejoice greatly, O daughter Zion! Shout aloud, O daughter Jerusalem! Lo, your king comes to you; triumphant and victorious is he” (9:9). Perhaps the most exciting invitation is that of the prophet Zephaniah, who presents God with his people in the midst of a celebration overflowing with the joy of salvation. I find it thrilling to reread this text: “The Lord, your God is in your midst, a warrior who gives you the victory; he will rejoice over you with gladness, he will renew you in his love; he will exult over you with loud singing, as on a day of festival” (3:17). This is the joy which we experience daily, amid the little things of life, as a response to the loving invitation of God our Father: “My child, treat yourself well, according to your means... Do not deprive yourself of the day’s enjoyment” (Sir 14:11, 14). What tender paternal love echoes in these words!

Cuarto Domingo ~ “La Alegría del Evangelio”.

Los libros del Antiguo Testamento habían preanunciado la alegría de la salvación, que se volvería desbordante en los tiempos mesiánicos. El profeta Isaías se dirige al Mesías esperado saludándolo con regocijo: «Tú multiplicaste la alegría, acrecentaste el gozo» (9,2). Y anima a los habitantes de Sión a recibirlo entre cantos: «¡Dad gritos de gozo y de júbilo!» (12,6). A quien ya lo ha visto en el horizonte, el profeta lo invita a convertirse en mensajero para los demás: «Súbete a un alto monte, alegre mensajero para Sión, clama con voz poderosa, alegre mensajero para Jerusalén» (40,9). La creación entera participa de esta alegría de la salvación: «¡Aclamad, cielos, y exulta, tierra! ¡Prorrumpid, montes, en cantos de alegría! Porque el Señor ha consolado a su pueblo, y de sus pobres se ha compadecido» (49,13). Zacarías, viendo el día del Señor, invita a dar vítores al Rey que llega «pobre y montado en un borrico»: «¡Exulta sin freno, Sión, grita de alegría, Jerusalén, que viene a ti tu Rey, justo y victorioso!» (Za 9,9). Pero quizás la invitación más contagiosa sea la del profeta Sofonías, quien nos muestra al mismo Dios como un centro luminoso de fiesta y de alegría que quiere comunicar a su pueblo ese gozo salvífico. Me llena de vida releer este texto: «Tu Dios está en medio de ti, poderoso salvador. Él exulta de gozo por ti, te renueva con su amor, y baila por ti con gritos de júbilo» (So 3,17). Es la alegría que se vive en medio de las pequeñas cosas de la vida cotidiana, como respuesta a la afectuosa invitación de nuestro Padre Dios: «Hijo, en la medida de tus posibilidades trátate bien [...] No te prives de pasar un buen día» (Si 14,11.14). ¡Cuánta ternura paterna se intuye detrás de estas palabras!
