I just came across on this story about a wonder dog that knew how to count. When asked '1x1', it would bark once. When asked '2x2', it would bark four times. Because of this, the dog was pampered. Everything was fine until one night, an unexpected thing happened. A drunken guy wanting to test the dog asked, "1,000,000 x 1,000,000". The last I heard about the dog, it is still barking and at the point of death.

Speaking about the end of life, a lot of stories of death come to us in a surprise and it really happens in real life. I knew of a young boy who just played basketball and in the middle of the game just collapsed and dies of heart attack. I also knew of a young man who was rushed to a hospital because after tending the cows in the field drank a cold coconut water fainted and proclaimed dead on arrival. This happened during my first assignment in the Philippines. You see, we really do not know when the day would come.

In today's Gospel, Jesus reminds us to be vigilant and not be complacent in life, and to be prepared for death itself, for 'the master will come on an unexpected day at unknown hour.'

There are three points that we could reflect upon the Gospel today. First, we must always be vigilant, ready and prepared. There's a saying that goes, "Preparation is half the battle won." The parable focuses on the unpredictable return of the groom, Jesus, and we need to be prepared for his return. He is saying to us, 'Ready or not, here I come!'. Most of us believe in preparation for uncertainties like we carry a spare tire in our car in preparation for a flat tire, airline stewards provide pre-flight instructions in preparation for turbulent weather, we seek education for a future job, etc. Come to think of it, all of these may not be certain and yet we feel compelled to prepare for them.

The return of Jesus is certain. We can never know precisely when he will return or when we will die but His return is certain. So, we must constantly watch, ready and be faithful always to Him that we may be found worthy to share in the heavenly banquet he has prepared for us.

Secondly, grab the opportunities that come and grow from them. Opportunities that come are not here forever. Jesus encourages us to gird our loins and light our lamps always. We have to value our lives, grab the chances to make our lives better, improve our situations as persons, strive to be a better Christian and follower of Jesus. Whatever gifts, talents and 'charisms' we have, let us use them for our growth in love, faith and hope in God and in the service of God and His people.

Finally, this preparedness would be measured by our readiness to serve. Our service should be according to what God intended us to serve. Thus, we have to remain in Him just like Abraham's faith described in the letter to the Hebrews. We do not watch the events in our lives and try to interpret the good and bad moments as signs of God's love or lack of love for us. Instead, with faith, we trust that we are sons and daughters of God and that God is with us through the joys and sorrows of our lives. That in whatever we do, we do it in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

As we reflect upon today's Gospel, may we be always vigilant and prepared for God, grab the opportunities that come and grow from them, and live that faith in our hearts that prepared us to serve, knowing always that only God's love is enough for us to grow in our faith, to serve God and His people and be prepared for His coming into our lives and in the life to come.
Have a Blessed Sunday!

RECAUDACIÓN DE FONDOS PARA EL PROYECTO DEL ESTACIONAMIENTO

WOW! ¡Esta semana se recaudó $952 para el proyecto del estacionamiento!

Donaciones recolectadas:	$69,340.26
Cantidad Necesaria:	$84,000.00
Necesario para alcanzar la Meta:	$14,659.74

Por favor, discernir cómo puede ayudarnos a cumplir con nuestra meta y ver cómo coronamos la cima de nuestro termómetro! Recuerde: todos sacrificarnos igual, no necesariamente dar en cantidades iguales. ¡Gracias!

NOS ACERCAMOS A LA META CADA SEMANA ¡BUEN TRABAJO!

Acabo de encontrarme con esta historia de un perro maravillosa que sabía contar. Cuando se le preguntaba '1x1', ladraría una vez. Cuando se le preguntaba '2x2', ladraría cuatro veces. Debido a esto, el perro fue mimado. Todo estaba bien hasta que una noche, sucedió algo inesperado. Un borracho que quería probar al perro preguntó, "1.000.000 x 1.000.000". Lo último que se oyó sobre el perro es que hasta ahora, está ladrando y ya al punto de la muerte.

Hablando del final de la vida, muchas historias acerca de la muerte nos llegan en forma de sorpresa y realmente suceden en la vida real. Sabía de un joven que acababa de jugar al baloncesto y en medio del juego se derrumbó y murió de un ataque al corazón. También supe de un joven que fue llevado de urgencia a un hospital porque después de cuidar a las vacas en el campo bebió agua fría de coco se desmayó y fue pronunciado muerto al llegar al hospital. Esto sucedió durante mi primera misión en las Filipinas. Ven, realmente no sabemos cuándo llegara el día.

En el Evangelio de hoy, Jesús nos recuerda que debemos estar atentos y no ser complacientes en la vida, y estar preparados para la muerte misma, porque 'el maestro vendrá en un día inesperado en hora desconocida'.

Hay tres puntos que podríamos reflexionar sobre el Evangelio de hoy. En primer lugar, siempre debemos estar vigilantes, listos y preparados. Hay un dicho que dice: "La preparación es la mitad de la batalla ganada". La parábola se centra en el regreso impredecible del novio, Jesús, y debemos estar preparados para su regreso. Nos está diciendo: '¡Listos o no, aquí les voy!'. La mayoría de nosotros creemos en la preparación ha ciertas incertidumbres como llevar neumáticos de repuesto en nuestro carro en preparación para un neumático pinchado, los administradores de aerolíneas proporcionan instrucciones previas al vuelo en preparación para el clima turbulento, buscamos educación para un futuro trabajo, etc. Pensándolo bien, todo esto puede no ser seguro y, sin embargo, nos sentimos obligados a prepararnos para ellos.

El regreso de Jesús es cierto. Nunca podemos saber con precisión cuándo regresará o cuándo moriremos, pero su regreso es seguro. Por lo tanto, debemos vigilar constantemente, estar preparados y ser fieles siempre a El para que seamos encontrados dignos de compartir en el banquete celestial que ha preparado para nosotros.

En segundo lugar, hay que aprovechar las oportunidades que vienen y crecer de ellas. Las oportunidades que vienen no estarán aquí para siempre. Jesús nos anima a ceñir nuestros lomos y a encender siempre nuestras lámparas. Tenemos que valorar nuestras vidas, aprovechar las oportunidades de mejorar nuestras vidas, mejorar nuestras situaciones como personas, esforzarnos por ser mejores cristianos y seguidores de Jesús. Cualquiera que sean los dones, talentos y "carismas" que tengamos, utilicémoslos para nuestro crecimiento en el amor, la fe y la esperanza en Dios y en el servicio de Dios y de su pueblo.

Cont'd

Finalmente, esta preparación se medirá por nuestra disposición a servir. Nuestro servicio debe ser de acuerdo con lo que Dios a querido que sirvamos. Por lo tanto, tenemos que permanecer en El tal como la fe de Abraham descrita en la carta a los Hebreos. No observamos los acontecimientos de nuestra vida y tratamos de interpretar los momentos buenos y malos como signos del amor de Dios o de la falta de amor por nosotros. En cambio, con fe, confiamos en que somos hijos e hijas de Dios y que Dios está con nosotros a través de las alegrías y penas de nuestras vidas. Que en lo que hagamos, lo hagamos en el nombre de nuestro Señor Jesucristo.

Como reflexionamos sobre el Evangelio de hoy, que estemos siempre atentos y preparados para Dios, aprovechando las oportunidades que vienen y que podamos crecer en ellas, y vivamos esa fe en nuestros corazones que ha preparado para servir, sabiendo siempre que sólo el amor de Dios es suficiente para que crezcamos en nuestra fe, para servir a Dios y a su pueblo y estar preparados para su venida a nuestras vidas y en la vida venidera.

¡Que tengas un domingo bendito!
