In the Name of the Father and the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen!

There is an old spiritual wisdom that says, "My God is so high, you can't get over him, he's so low you can't get under him, he's so wide you can't get 'round him, you must come in, by and through the Lamb." Yes. We are pondering a mystery we cannot fit in our minds. We don't know how the Trinity works, but we can understand why the Trinity. Why God has revealed to us this mystery of three persons in one God.

The best way to understand this Mystery is to see it in the context of love. Let's be a theologian today to see how the Trinity works. We know that God is love. But can God love himself? No. God can't stand in a front of the mirror saying to himself: "Buddy I love you." The nature of love is sharing. In other words, love needs an object. Now you may say: If love needs an object, then we can be an object of God's love. Yes we can. But St. Augustine would argue that that kind of love is not proportional. It is not the right order of love. For instance, a spousal love is rightly ordered to another person, not to a pet. An animal's love is rightly ordered to another animal, not to a tree. In the same way, divine love is rightly ordered to another divine, not to a creature. Therefore, it makes sense when we believe in Godhead, there is a community of persons whose love for each other is so rich, so intense, and so hot that it spills over into the world. As the result, we are created. Thus, in this cosmos, everything is made in this image of Trinitarian love. Do you understand what I am saying? If you don't. That's Ok. It is a mystery.

Friends, every Sunday is Trinity Sunday because we celebrate the fact that God is a family of love, and that we, through his grace, are drawn into that family so we might look like Him in love. As the mutual love between the Father and the Son gives rise to a third person, the Holy Spirit, the spousal love of husband and wife must be open to their children. True love itself is never closed in on itself, but always open up for and to life. True love is always self-giving to another. Trinity unfolds the fact that God does not exist in solitary individualism but in a community of love and sharing. We are made in the image of the Trinity. We are made to enter into relationship with others. "To be is to be in relationship." So to be human is to be essentially directed toward others, sharing our equal love and responsibilities to build up God's kingdom on earth as a song that says:

*Make It A Better Place. For You And For Me
And The Entire Human Race. There Are People Dying
If You Care Enough For The Living
Make A Better Place, For You And For Me and for the Glory of God.*

In the Name of the Father and the Son and of the Holy Spirit.
Amen!

¡Gracias!

¡TAMBIÉN ESTAMOS A MITAD DEL CAMINO!

Hay una vieja sabiduría espiritual que dice, "Mi Dios es tan alto, que no se puede superar, él es tan bajo que no se puede estar debajo de él, es tan ancho que no se puede avarcar alrededor de él, Tu debes entrar, por y a través del cordero." Sí. Estamos reflexionando sobre un misterio que no podemos encajar en nuestras mentes. No sabemos cómo funciona la Trinidad, pero podemos entender la razón porqué es la Trinidad. Porqué Dios nos ha revelado este misterio de tres personas en un solo Dios.

La mejor manera de entender este Misterio es verlo en el contexto del amor. Seamos Teólogos hoy para ver cómo funciona la Trinidad. Sabemos que Dios es amor. Pero, ¿puede Dios amarse a sí mismo? No. Dios no puede pararse en un frente del espejo diciéndose a sí mismo: "Ser te amo." La naturaleza del amor es compartir. En otras palabras, el amor necesita un objeto. Ahora se puede decir: Si el amor necesita un objeto, entonces podemos ser un objeto del amor de Dios. Sí, podemos. Pero San Agustín argumentaría que ese tipo de amor no es proporcional. No es el orden correcto del amor. Por ejemplo, un amor conyugal se consagra con razón a otra persona, no a una mascota. El amor de un animal se consagra con razón a otro animal, no a un árbol. De la misma manera, el amor divino se consagra con razón a otro divino, no a una criatura.

Por lo tanto, tiene sentido cuando creemos en Dios, hay una comunidad de personas cuyo amor por el otro es tan rico, tan intenso y tan ardiente que se derrama en el mundo. Como resultado, estamos creados. Así, en este cosmo, todo se hace en esta imagen de amor Trinitario. ¿Entiendes lo que estoy diciendo? Si no, está bien. Es un misterio.

Amigos, todos los Domingos es el Domingo de la Trinidad porque celebramos el hecho de que Dios es una familia de amor, y que nosotros, por su gracia, somos atraídos a esa familia para que podamos ser como Él en el amor. A medida que el amor mutuo entre el Padre y el Hijo da lugar a una tercera persona, el Espíritu Santo, el amor conyugal del marido y de la esposa debe estar abierto a sus hijos. El verdadero amor en sí mismo nunca se cierra en sí mismo, pero siempre se abre por y para la vida.

El amor verdadero siempre se da al otro. La Trinidad despliega el hecho de que Dios no existe en el individualismo solitario, sino en una comunidad de amor y de compartir entre si. Estamos hechos a la imagen de la Trinidad. Estamos hechos para entrar en relación con los demás. "Ser es estar en relación." Así que ser humano es ser esencialmente dirigido hacia los demás, compartiendo nuestro amor y responsabilidades iguales para edificar el Reino de Dios en la tierra como una canción que dice:

Hazlo que sea un lugar mejor. Para Ti y para Mí
Y toda la Raza Humana. Hay Gente muriendo
Si te importa un poco el que Vive
Hazlo un lugar mejor, para Ti y para Mí y para la Gloria de Dios.
En el Nombre del Padre y del Hijo y del Espíritu Santo. ¡Amén!

Bendiciones de la Trinidad,

Fr. Thi Hoang
