A Reflection From Deacon Gustavo:

Jesus teaches us in today's Gospel to learn to hear the voice of God in the events of history. It is true that God speaks to us, but we must learn to listen to him. Jesus does not tell us that the dead of these drastic events were sinners, in fact, we all are. What Jesus tells us is that, by doing so, we must convert and bear fruits of conversion. The fruits are a Word of God in this stage of history.

We live in societies where many of the fruits are torture, disappearances, murders, fear, hopelessness... and even more: hunger, unemployment, illiteracy, lack of health and housing...., and "by the fruits the tree is known." Today, many of us continue to live our faith far away from the fruits of love and justice that the Gospel asks of us. We participate in a society enslaved by individualism, materialism and technology, and these actions have nothing to do with the Catholic Social Teaching. And where are the fruits?

Words are not enough. There is no use of a sterile fig tree. A fig tree should give figs, which is the reason it has been planted. People redeemed by Christ must build with his life a kingdom that gives fruit of truth, justice and peace, freedom, life and hope..., and we could multiply these fruits that we see in the communities. There are many fruits still to give, much lack of life to reap and joy to celebrate. The continent of violence, injustice and hunger demands fruits from us Christians; those fruits must be given in history. The daily events, of pain and death, that we frequently live, lead us to listen to the Call of God, and to understand the actions to produce the fruits that He asks of us.

Jesus teaches us the "fruit dynamics" to learn to recognize there is a God who continues to speak and call us to conversion; not for individual and personal conversion, but for a community conversion that bears fruit, for history and life. And Lent is an opportune time to start giving them...

MARRIAGE CONVALIDATION OPPORTUNITY

Dear All Civilly Married Couples:

You may have chosen not to marry in the Church because of family issues or timing or concerns about cost or other reasons, and now hesitate to have your marriage convalidated (sacramentally recognized by the Church) because of similar worries about cost or time. WORRY NO MORE! IT IS FREE NOW.

We are going to have a group marriage convalidation here in our church on August 17 at 12pm.

To prepare for this celebration, we will have an "in house" marriage preparation session which will take place on April 27 from 9am to 3pm.

If you are interested in getting your marriage convalidated, please contact our parish secretary, Carmen, for registration.

Attention! We accept only couples that are currently civilly married, and have never been previously married or divorced.

Feast of Saint Pedro Calungsod April 7, 2019

Saint Pedro Calungsod was a Roman Catholic Filipino migrant, sacristan and catechist who along with Spanish Jesuit Missionary Diego Luis De San Vitores suffered religious persecution and martyrdom in Guam for their missionary works in 1672. He was beatified on March 5, 2000 by St John Paul II, was officially canonized by Pope Benedict XVI on October 21, 2012 at St Peter's Basilica, Vatican City. Calungsod is the second Filipino Saint after San Lorenzo Ruiz.

Church of the Good Shepherd is inviting you to celebrate the Feast of San Pedro Calungsod on April 7, 2019 at the 12 noon mass. If anyone is interested in sponsoring the mass and offering your intentions, please call Cecile Perez at 925-300-6234.

ADORATION

Starting on the first Friday in April and thereafter on the first Friday from 8 AM to 6:45 PM Adoration will be in the Church, followed by a Mass for the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus at 7 PM.

Jesus said to His Apostles: "My soul is sorrowful to the point of death. Wait here and stay awake with me.' And going on a little further he fell on his face and prayed. 'My Father,' he said, 'if it is possible, let this cup pass me by. Nevertheless, let it be as you, not as I would have it.' He came back to the disciples and found them sleeping, and he said to Peter, 'So you had not the strength to stay awake with me for one hour?

We need at least one person per hour to sit with the Blessed Sacrament, the sign up book is in the vestibule as you enter the church on the right hand side.

2019 BISHOP'S APPEAL REBUILD MY CHURCH

2019 Goal: $35,600

Amount Collected so far: $14,107.59

Bishop Barber personally chose the theme for this year's Bishop's Appeal. For context, I will share the historical story which is the basis for the theme. The following passage is from St. Bonaventure's The Life of Francis: "One day when Francis went out to meditate in the fields he was passing by the church of San Damiano which was threatening to collapse because of extreme age. Inspired by the Spirit, he went inside to pray.

Kneeling before an image of the Crucified, he was filled with great fervor and consolation as he prayed. While his tear-filled eyes were gazing at the Lord's cross, he heard with his bodily ears a voice coming from the cross, telling him three times: "Francis, go and repair my house which, as you see, is falling into ruin."

Trembling with fear, Francis was amazed at the sound of this astonishing voice, since he was alone in the church; and as he received in his heart the power of the divine words, he fell into a state of ecstasy. Returning finally to his senses, he prepared to put his whole heart into obeying the command he had received. He began zealously to repair the church materially, although the principle intention of the words referred to that Church which Christ purchased with his own blood, as the Holy Spirit afterward made him realize..."

Good Shepherd got an early start on this year's appeal. Please continue to help us meet our goal through prayer and contribution placed in any 2nd collection basket.

Comenzando el primer Viernes de Abril y posteriormente el primer Viernes de 8AM a 6:45PM la Adoración estará en la Iglesia, seguida de una Misa para el Sagrado Corazón de Jesús a las 7PM. Jesús dijo a sus Apóstoles: "Mi alma está afligida al punto de la muerte. Esperen aquí y manténganse despiertos conmigo. "Y yendo un poco más lejos inclinó su rostro y oró. 'Mi padre', dijo, 'si es posible, deja que esta copa me pase. Sin embargo, que sea como tú, no como yo lo desearia.' Volvió a los discípulos y los encontró durmiendo, y le dijo a Pedro: '¿Así que no tuvieron la fuerza para permanecer despiertos conmigo durante una hora?

Necesitamos al menos una persona por hora para sentarse con el Santísimo Sacramento, el libro de registro está en el vestíbulo a entrar en la iglesia en el lado derecho.

Un Mensaje del Diácono Gustavo Escrucería

Jesús nos enseña, en el texto de hoy a aprender a escuchar la voz de Dios en los acontecimientos de la historia. Es verdad que Dios nos habla, pero hay que aprender a escucharlo. Jesús no nos dice que los muertos de esos acontecimientos drásticos eran pecadores, de hecho, todos lo somos. Lo que Jesús nos dice es que, por serlo, debemos convertirnos y dar frutos de conversión. Los frutos son una palabra de Dios para esta etapa de la historia.

Vivimos en sociedades donde muchos de los frutos son torturas, desapariciones, asesinatos, miedo, desesperanza... y más todavía: hambre, desocupación, analfabetismo, falta de salud y vivienda... y "por los frutos se conoce el árbol". Hoy, muchos seguimos viviendo nuestra fe muy lejos de los frutos de amor y justicia que nos pide el Evangelio: participamos en una sociedad esclavizada por el individualismo, el materialismo y la tecnología, y estas acciones no tienen nada que ver con la Doctrina Social de la Iglesia. ¿Y dónde están los frutos?

No bastan las palabras. De nada sirve una higuera estéril. Una higuera debe dar higos ya que para eso ha sido plantada. Un pueblo redimido por Cristo debe edificar con su vida un Reino que dé frutos de verdad, de justicia y de paz, de libertad, de vida y de esperanza..., y podríamos multiplicar estos frutos que vemos en las comunidades.

Faltan muchos frutos que dar, falta mucha vida que cosechar y alegría que festejar. El continente de la violencia, de la injusticia y el hambre reclama frutos de nosotros los cristianos; esos frutos deben darse en la historia. Los acontecimientos cotidianos, de dolor y de muerte, que tan frecuentes vivimos nos llevan a escuchar el llamado de Dios, y a comprender las acciones a tomar para producir los frutos que Él nos pide.

Jesús nos enseña la "dinámica del fruto" para aprender a reconocer allí un Dios que sigue hablando y que nos sigue llamando a la conversión; no para una conversión individual y personal, sino para una conversión comunitaria que dé frutos, para la historia y para la vida. Y la Cuaresma es tiempo oportuno para empezar a darlos...
