My dearest Good Shepherd Family,

We have just entered the month of November. If you are to pick a month which stands out with the theme of unity and love, it must be November because for a very long time, November has become a holy and memorial month when we come together to remember, to believe and to celebrate the repose of the souls of our loved ones.

This month we are celebrating one of the most fundamental and most consoling truths of Catholicism, the Communion of Saints. November 1st is All Saints Day when we, the Church militant, celebrates the Church Triumphant in heaven and we remember the Church Suffering in purgatory on All Souls Day, November 2nd. That's the beauty of our faith. We will continue to practice and pass on such a beautiful tradition of the church.

"Is there a purgatory?" Many people ask. The answer is Yes. Reason says that there SHOULD be. We know that we are not perfect enough for heaven and not wicked enough for hell. So there must be a middle state of purification. According to the Catholic Catechism: "All who die in God's grace and friendship but imperfectly purified, are indeed assured of their eternal salvation but after death they undergo purification, so as to achieve the holiness necessary to enter the joy of heaven." Tradition testifies that from the beginning, Christians have prayed for the dead (they prayed at the Catacombs). Scripture has no explicit mention of purgatory, but it is implicitly contained in the Second Book of Macabees, chapter 12 where a mother prays for the repose of her sons. And St John said in the Book of Revelation: "nothing unclean will enter the presence of God in heaven" (Rev. 21:27). So there is the purgatory.

How are the souls in the purgatory being purified? By our prayer for them. That's why we have the feast of all souls. We light candles for them. We offer Mass intentions for them. In every mass we pray for these souls. We pray for them. They pray for us. We pray for each other. That is a beauty of the Catholic Church. Every member of the Communion of Saints is remembered and prayed for in every Mass. What a consolation for us to know that long after we are dead and forgotten, the Church will be praying for us in every Mass. And because of the 24 different time zones in the world, several Masses are being offered every minute of the day somewhere in the world. When we realize all of this, we see what a wonderful gift it is to be a Catholic and to be a member of the Communion of Saints.

Some of you may have lost a loved one recently, or at least in the past year. Some of you grieve someone lost in earlier years but still miss terribly. The month of November is a source of consolation for each of us. If our hearts are broken and suffering about the loss of loved ones, or if we are dealing with unresolved issues about good-byes that were not said, peace that was not made, gratitude that was not expressed, let us ask the faithful departed to intercede for us and for our own peace. The consoling doctrine of the Communion of Saints allows us to feel ever close to those who have died and gives us much hope in moments of despair and sadness.

In memory and gratitude to our loved ones, we as a family of the Good Shepherd will offer a special Mass for all Souls at the chapel of the Holy Cross cemetery on November 9th at 11am. All are welcome!

Eternal rest grant unto all the faithful departed, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace. Amen.

Mi querida Familia del Buen Pastor,

Acabamos de entrar en el mes de Noviembre. Si van a elegir un mes que destaque el tema de la unidad y el amor, debe ser Noviembre porque desde hace mucho tiempo, Noviembre se ha convertido en un mes sagrado y conmemorativo cuando nos reunimos para recordar, creer y celebrar el descanso de las almas de nuestros seres queridos.

Este mes celebramos una de las verdades más fundamentales y consoladoras del Catolicismo, la Comunión de los Santos. El 1 de Noviembre es el Día de Todos los Santos cuando nosotros, la Iglesia militante, celebramos la Iglesia Triunfante en el cielo y recordamos el Sufrimiento de la Iglesia en el purgatorio en el Día de Todas las Almas, el 2 de Noviembre. Esa es la belleza de nuestra fe. Continuaremos practicando y transmitiendo una tradición tan hermosa de la Iglesia.

“¿Hay un purgatorio?”, Preguntaron muchas personas. La respuesta es Sí. La razón dice que DEBERÍA haberlo. Sabemos que no somos lo suficientemente perfectos para el cielo ni lo suficientemente malvados para el infierno. Entonces debe haber un estado medio de purificación. Según el Catecismo Católico: “Todos los que mueren en la gracia y la amistad de Dios, pero purificados imperfectamente, están seguros de su salvación eterna, pero después de la muerte se someten a la purificación, para lograr la santidad necesaria para entrar en la alegría del cielo”. La tradición testifica que desde el principio, los Cristianos han rezado por los muertos (rezaron en las catacumbas). La Escritura no menciona explícitamente el purgatorio, pero está implícitamente contenida en el Segundo Libro de los Macabeos, capítulo 12, donde una madre reza por el descanso de sus hijos. Y San Juan dijo en el Libro de Apocalipsis: “nada impuro entrará en la presencia de Dios en el cielo” (Apoc. 21:27). Entonces está el purgatorio.

¿Cómo se purifican las almas del purgatorio? Por nuestra oración por ellos. Por eso tenemos la fiesta de todas las almas. Tenemos velas encendidas para ellos. Ofrecemos intenciones masivas para ellos. En cada misa oramos por estas almas. Oramos por ellos. Rezan por nosotros. Rezamos el uno por el otro. Esa es una belleza de la Iglesia Católica. Cada miembro de la Comunión de los Santos es recordado y rezado por cada Misa. Qué consuelo para nosotros saber que mucho después de que estemos muertos y olvidados, la Iglesia rezará por nosotros en cada Misa. Y debido a las 24 horas diferentes zonas del mundo, se ofrecen varias Misas cada minuto del día en algún lugar del mundo. Cuando nos damos cuenta de todo esto, vemos qué maravilloso regalo es ser católico y ser miembro de la Comunión de los Santos.

Algunos de ustedes pueden haber perdido a un ser querido recientemente, o al menos en el último año. Algunos de ustedes lloran por la pérdida de alguien en años anteriores, pero aún así lo/la extrañaron terriblemente. El mes de Noviembre es una fuente de consuelo para cada uno de nosotros. Si nuestros corazones están rotos y sufren la pérdida de seres queridos, o si estamos lidiando con problemas no resueltos sobre despedidas que no se dijeron, paz que no se hizo, gratitud que no se expresó, pidamos a los fieles que se fueron a intercede por nosotros y por nuestra propia paz. La consoladora doctrina de la Comunión de los Santos nos permite sentirnos siempre cerca de los que han muerto y nos da mucha esperanza en momentos de desesperación y tristeza.

En memoria y agradecimiento a nuestros seres queridos, nosotros, como familia del Buen Pastor, ofreceremos una Misa especial para Todas las Almas en la capilla del cementerio de la Santa Cruz (Holy Cross) el 9 de Noviembre a las 11 a.m. ¡Todos son bienvenidos!

El descanso eterno otorga a todos los fieles difuntos, Oh Señor, y deja que la luz perpetua brille sobre ellos. Que descansen en paz. Amén.

Padre Thi Hoang
