VII Sunday Ordinary Time. “Love your Enemy”

The call to love is always seductive. Surely many welcomed Jesus' call to love God and others. It was the best synthesis of the Law. But what they could not imagine is that one day, He would speak to them about loving their enemies.

However, Jesus did it. Without any support from biblical tradition, distancing Himself from the Psalms of vengeance that fed the prayer life of his people, confronting the general climate of hatred that was breathed in his surroundings, Jesus proclaimed with absolute clarity his call: "I, instead, say to you: “love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, that you may be children of your heavenly Father, for he makes his sun rise on the bad and the good, and causes rain to fall on the just and the unjust””.

His language is outrageous and surprising, but totally consistent with His experience of God. The Father is not violent: He loves even His enemies; He does not seek the destruction of anyone. His greatness does not consist of taking revenge, but to love everyone unconditionally. Whoever feels they are the son of God will not introduce hatred or destruction into the world.

Love your enemy is not a secondary teaching of Jesus, directed to people called to heroic perfection. His call wants to introduce into history a new attitude to the enemy because he wants to eliminate hatred and destructive violence in the world. Whoever follows God will not fuel hatred against anyone; will seek the good of all, even his enemies.

When Jesus speaks of love for your enemy, He is not encouraging feelings of affection or sympathy for those who do us wrong. The enemy remains someone we can expect harm, and the feelings in our hearts can hardly change.

Loving your enemy means, first of all, not to hurt them, not to seek or desire to harm them. We must not be surprised if we do not feel any love for them. It's only natural that we feel hurt or humiliated. We need to worry when we continue to fuel hatred and thirst for revenge.

But it's not just about not hurting them. We can take more steps until we are willing to do good if we find it necessary. We must not forget that we are more human when we forgive than when we come to rejoice in their misfortune. Sincere forgiveness of your enemy is not easy. In some circumstances the person finds it impossible to free himself from rejection, hatred or a thirst for vengeance. We must not judge anyone from the outside. Only God unconditionally understands and forgives us, even when we are unable to forgive.

Adoration - 8:00 AM to 6:45PM

Jesus said to His Apostles: "My soul is sorrowful to the point of death. Wait here and stay awake with me."

And going on a little further he fell on his face and prayed. "My Father," he said, "if it is possible, let this cup pass me by. Nevertheless, let it be as you, not as I would have it." He came back to the disciples and found them sleeping, and he said to Peter, "So you had not the strength to stay awake with me for one hour?"

We need at least one person per hour to sit with the Blessed Sacrament, the signup book is in the vestibule as you enter the church on the right-hand side.

TIM FRANCIS
PRESENTS
DO YOU BELIEVE IN MIRACLES?
 ~ SEEING IS BELIEVING ~

*From altar boy to party boy; From non-denominational mega church back to the Roman Catholic Church. Tim Francis shares with us his quest for truth.

This is a LIVE presentation hosted by Tim Francis. Few things you will hear and see:

- ◆ Communion host caught on film pulsating like a human heart.
- ◆ Multiple communion hosts tested by science that transformed into human heart
- ◆ Lady being filmed & tested before, during, and after Stigmata
- ◆ + Much more:
 The meaning of suffering. Why be Catholic after all the corruption? Are all Religions the same?
 Why confess sins to a man when he might be just as sinful? etc.....

He has since conducted over 500 parish missions conveying the meaning of the miracles with results similar to this:

Fallen away son returns after Mother drags him to presentation:

"I wanted to thank you for changing my life. My mom went to day 1 of the 3-day mission... she got me to attend the second day... I was an occasional Mass attendee, mostly holidays. After your talk I made a good confession and now attend Mass DAILY...."

And this one from a fallen away Catholic turned Protestant Pastor:

"Without hesitation, nor exaggeration, I can say it was this presentation that was the pinnacle of my return to the Catholic Church..."

36-year-old fallen away Catholic son. His Mother has been praying years for his return to the Church.

"Seeing the miracles that no science can refute, and the people personally touched by Jesus and Mary forever changed the direction of my life and the makeup of my heart... I felt the power of Jesus and for me that could only have happened by seeing what Tim presented. Since that day in May I have not missed a Mass."

VII Domingo Tiempo Ordinario. "Amar a tu Próximo"

La llamada al amor es siempre seductora. Seguramente, muchos acogían con agrado la llamada de Jesús a amar a Dios y al prójimo. Era la mejor síntesis de la Ley. Pero lo que no podían imaginar es que un día, Él les hablara de amar a los enemigos.

Sin embargo, Jesús lo hizo. Sin respaldo alguno de la tradición bíblica, distanciándose de los salmos de venganza que alimentaban la oración de su pueblo, enfrentándose al clima general de odio que se respiraba en su entorno, Jesús proclamó con claridad absoluta su llamada: "Yo, en cambio, les digo: "Amen a sus enemigos, hagan el bien a los que los odian y rueguen por los que los persiguen y calumnian, para que sean hijos de su Padre celestial, que hace salir su sol sobre los buenos y los malos, y manda su lluvia sobre los justos y los injustos".

Su lenguaje es escandaloso y sorprendente, pero totalmente coherente con su experiencia de Dios. El Padre no es violento: ama incluso a sus enemigos, no busca la destrucción de nadie. Su grandeza no consiste en vengarse sino en amar incondicionalmente a todos. Quien se sienta hijo de ese Dios, no introducirá en el mundo odio ni destrucción de nadie.

El amor al enemigo no es una enseñanza secundaria de Jesús, dirigida a personas llamadas a una perfección heroica. Su llamada quiere introducir en la historia una actitud nueva ante el enemigo porque quiere eliminar en el mundo el odio y la violencia destructora. Quien se siga a Dios no alimentará el odio contra nadie, buscará el bien de todos incluso de sus enemigos.

Cuando Jesús habla del amor al enemigo, no está pidiendo que alimentemos en nosotros sentimientos de afecto, simpatía o cariño hacia quien nos hace mal. El enemigo sigue siendo alguien del que podemos esperar daño, y difícilmente pueden cambiar los sentimientos de nuestro corazón.

Amar al enemigo significa, antes que nada, no hacerle mal, no buscar ni desear hacerle daño. No hemos de extrañarnos si no sentimos amor alguno hacia él. Es natural que nos sintamos heridos o humillados. Nos hemos de preocupar cuando seguimos alimentando el odio y la sed de venganza.

Pero no se trata solo de no hacerle mal. Podemos dar más pasos hasta estar incluso dispuestos a hacerle el bien si lo encontramos necesitado. No hemos de olvidar que somos más humanos cuando perdonamos que cuando nos vengamos alegrándonos de su desgracia.

El perdón sincero al enemigo no es fácil. En algunas circunstancias a la persona le es imposible liberarse del rechazo, el odio o la sed de venganza. No hemos de juzgar a nadie desde fuera. Solo Dios nos comprende y perdona de manera incondicional, incluso cuando no somos capaces de perdonar.

Cuaresma es un tiempo para explorar y un tiempo para orar de una manera nueva: una experiencia de oración contemplativa.

Facilitador: El Padre Richard Mangini es el Pastor Emérito de la parroquia de San Buenaventura en Concord. Es un Sacerdote de la Diócesis de Oakland por más de 50 años. El Padre Mangini continúa haciendo su ministerio en inglés y en español dentro y fuera de esta área.

Encontrándome con Cristo, es un proceso de formación espiritual intenso para la Cuaresma buscando una relación personal con Jesús. Esta formación está basada en:
